Introduction:

“If you wish to be heard in the noise of this world, let your soul be dominated by a single idea. It is the man with a single idea who creates political and social revolutions, establishes empires and gives law to the world.” Allama Iqbal (R.A.)

O Allah, grant us this piece of land where we would be able to live our lives in accordance with the laws given to us by You in the Qur’an, and exemplified for us by the most revered and beloved, Syedina RasulAllah (pbuh). This was the prayer throbbing in every true Muslim’s heart in the pre-partition subcontinent, and then with eager ears and tearful eyes, they ultimately heard the announcement: “This is radio Pakistan.”

Thus began the largest migration recorded in history and the heavens also witnessed the most brutal massacre of humanity ever. Those who had dwelled as next-door neighbors for decades became scavengers over night. Train after train entered Lahore, carrying the mutilated, slaughtered bodies of Muslim immigrants, caravan after caravan was attacked and no one spared, elderly, infants, young innocent girls, pregnant women, unarmed men, all were preys to the beasts of revenge. Most of our elders paid a very heavy price for the fulfillment of this dream, they were either slaughtered or lost everything they owned; the nation lost many of its gems. They stayed back and sent their loved ones ahead with the confidence that they will fulfill the promise and complete the dream.

However, unfortunately after the death of our beloved Quaid, no one worthy or competent enough to shoulder the responsibility of fulfilling this promise appeared on the scene. The most incompetent, corrupt and soul less of all, governed this sacred land of ours.

It is a colossal undertaking, an enterprise of splendid daring as well as intense passion to rekindle the spark of self-respect, dignity and honor in an environment where complacency, confusion and cowardice reign supreme: A state to which the feeble-minded adjust and pessimistically resign.

In such despondent times, a soul dominated by a single purpose shone brilliantly amidst the shadows of utter despair. Syed Zaid Zaman Hamid, a man with a monumental mission, made his first mainstream media appearance on Ptv, in the current affairs program, World View, in the year 2007. However, this was just the proverbial tip of the iceberg. Syed Zaid Zaman Hamid had already been actively working towards defending Pakistan's Islamic ideology and identity as a Security and Defense Analyst at BrassTacks, since the year 2000. Thus had begun a journey of unflinching commitment towards preparing the groundwork for the establishment of a truly Islamic state as envisioned by Allama Iqbal (R.A.) and founded by Quaid-e-Azam (R.A.).

The BrassTacks programs aired on News One comprised of some of the most profound and significant series in sequential discussions, expositions and effective solutions regarding critical subjects that had never been discussed in the main stream media: Programs on Economic Terrorism, CIA Threats to Pakistan, Zionist Wars against Islam and Role of Spiritual Forces in War, are to name but a few. Syed Zaid Zaman Hamid's accurate analysis and revelations presented in these and a score of other such programs, infused a unique sense of awareness in the viewers, especially the youth within Pakistan as well as abroad. Running parallel to the series of defense and strategic analysis were Syed Zaid Zaman Hamid's panoramic presentations tracing the glorious genesis of Muslim Military history from the earliest conquests to the present times in the 29 episodes of 'Yeh Ghazi' series.

Qurun-e-Oola and Iqbal ka Pakistan were two programs running simultaneously on News One and Aag TV, respectively. Both these series were of phenomenal significance, pertaining to the most significant achievements of the Muslim civilization and exploring the very achievable goals and possibilities of reclaiming our lost glorious status by following Iqbal's pragmatism and philosophy. Consecutively, along with these and many more programs on the mainstream media, a massive amount of work was being conducted by Mr Zaid Hamid personally on the internet, through written articles and books as well as within the BrassTacks think tank itself.

The year 2009 witnessed the so-called 'disillusioned' Pakistani youth move to manic patriotism by the charismatically inspirational public appearance and speeches of Mr. Zaid Hamid. Lahore was honored and enthralled to host the first event of the Wake Up Pakistan series in October 2009, which came full circle with its culmination in Lahore once again in February 2010. Mr. Zaid Hamid travelled to various major cities across the country, including Islamabad, Karachi, Peshawar, Faisalabad and Sargodha, reawakening the latent spirit of Ishq and Junoon for Pak Sarzameen in the hearts and souls of the Pakistani masses.

Ironically, as this spiritual and patriotic reawakening gained momentum, the enigmatic “Zaid Hamid” began to be viewed as a threat and a clear and present danger by the complacent, the confused and the cowardly, on the state as well as individual levels. A massive smear campaign was initiated against him, maligning the man, his faith and his mission. However, undaunted by this onslaught of immoral and unlawful allegations, Mr. Zaid Hamid persevered in his objectives, and triumphantly proved the strength of his faith and commitment on the historic day of March 23rd, 2010, by passing the Takmeel-e-Pakistan Resolution. This was an event that marked a different kind of history and defeated all defeatist ideologies that stood in the path of truth and faith. Success and fulfillment of purpose on such a large scale is bound to breed controversies, but Mr. Zaid Hamid continued through this odyssey in a steadfast but humble manner. He is being continually invited as the chief speaker by various prestigious clubs, colleges and universities to speak on strategic, security and economic issues as well as for lectures on the revival of khudi and to present the true essence of Iqbal’s message to the present and the future generations of Pakistan.

The International think tanks and media, especially the Americans and Iranians have distinctively noticed him as well. A New York Times article and documentary specially featured the impact his so falsely termed "conspiracy theories" have on the Pakistani youth. Iranian Press TV presented a detailed and exclusive documentary on his background, ideology, and think tank. Both Press TV and Al-Jazeera invite him as a regular guest to hear his distinct and daring opinion and analysis of issues focusing on Pakistan's role in the region, American policies towards it, and the increasingly deteriorating situation of American WOT in Afghanistan. Even the skeptics are now forced to see every situation with the "Zaid Hamid" angle in advance in order to have answers ready for his questions and opinions, and the nation waits in anticipation to hear his perspective about these issues.

On December 5th 2010, Mr. Zaid Hamid gave a 50 minute interview to Mark Glenn on an alternative media forum, The Ugly Truth, based in the USA. His views and analysis on the geo-political situation in the region and the dynamics of the Fourth Generation War waged in and around our homeland, resonated through the air-waves with the usual forceful impact.

In June 2010, BrassTacks also launched its Monthly Security Review for public perusal. A ground breaking original academic work on regional geo-politics which is now decisively shaping the security and political profile of Pakistan. Also, since the last eleven years, BrassTacks has been producing weekly Security Reports and Threat Analysis for Pakistan, which are taken as benchmark analysis on national security issues by National Policy makers as well as major corporate entities.

Mr. Zaid Hamid's most recent and exceptionally heartwarming and spiritually uplifting program, Halqa-e-Yaran, aired on Royal News, is a milestone of incomparable significance. Here, he analyzes and interprets the quintessential meaning and symbolism of Iqbal's poetry, aligning it with the teachings of the Quran and Seerat-e-Nabwi (pbuh) revealing yet another facet of his own multi-dimensional personality.

Perspectives have changed, personalities have altered and characters have been refined with the restoration of hope and faith, as Mr. Zaid Hamid became a household name in various circles of Pakistani society at home and abroad. This document is an attempt to catalogue the numerous tasks accomplished during the course of an ongoing epic journey, selflessly undertaken for a sublime purpose by a humble yet relentless servant of Allah (SWT) and Rasul Allah (pbuh).

Hasbo Nallaha Wa Naimal Wakeel.

BrassTacks - Independence Day Special – (News One): August 14th, 2008

BrassTacks - Zionist War Against Islam – (News One): August 27th, 2008

BrassTacks - CIA's Threats to Pakistan – (News One): August 31st, 2008 (9 episodes): In this episode, Zaid Hamid provides an insight into the current, apparently murky scenario in Pakistan i.e. the internal and external security threats. He exposes the forces trying to unsettle and destabilize Pakistan through propaganda and psychological warfare. He exhibits no sympathies for the so-called well-wishers of Pakistan and wants us to identify the traitors in our ranks. He also provides a cue on the Kashmir uprising and the shameful and criminal negligence of our media towards it. But he does show the silver lining and advocates that the situation is not as desperate as portrayed by the media. Thus asking us not to lose hope and display our true spirit as a Muslim Nation. Indeed he does a great job by saying 'Kalima-e-Haq' even in such circumstances.

BrassTacks - Hindu Zionism - (News One): July 9th, 2008 – Zaid Hamid coined the term “Hindu Zionism,” used for the first time in this series.

Yeh Ghazi Series - (News One) – September 3rd, 2008 - November 12th, 2008 (29 episodes) – featuring the phenomenal and glorious contributions and conquests of Khalid Bin Waleed, Sa'ad Ibn Abi Waqqas , Amr Ibn Al-'Aas, Musa Bin Nusair, Tariq Bin Ziad, Muhammad Bin Qasim, Qutaiba Bin Muslim, and Sultan Mehmood Ghaznavi (May Allah’s blessings be on all of them).

BrassTacks - US Grand Strategic Objectives - (News One): October 16th, 2008 : Zaid Hamid describes the overall context of the geo-political situation in which we find ourselves, discussing the salient features of US Foreign Policy and explains how the current US actions relate to this grand scheme of their long term political objectives.

BrassTacks - Pak Afghan Policy – (News One): October 21st, 2008

BrassTacks – Yaum-e-Takbeer – (News One): October 25th, 2008: Re-establishing the sense of pride and honour on “Yaum-e-takbeer”, the day when Pakistan became a nuclear power, its need, significance and strategic effects.

Brass Tacks - Economic Terrorism series – (News One): November 13th, 2008: Zaid Hamid describes the history of money from the days of Jewish money lenders and traces the development of banking concepts based on Riba and Interest. He also exposes the freemasonic Zionist involvement in their systematic conspiracy of enslaving the rest of the world through interest-based banking mechanisms. After discussing the global history of western economic exploitation of the rest of the world, Zaid Hamid exposes the workings of modern fractional reserve-based banking and paper currencies, and relates them to the current economic meltdown in the western countries. In the end, for the first time, Zaid Hamid clearly explains the fundamental principles of Islamic Economic system, with references from the Quran and Hadith, explaining it the way in which it has never been done before. This series is a must watch for every concerned citizen, not only Pakistanis but the whole Muslim Ummah and the world.

Iqbal ka Pakistan Series (Aag, Geo TV Network): July 3rd 2009:

"Nations are born in the hearts of poets, they prosper and die in the hands of politicians." (Allama Iqbal, RA)

'Iqbal ka Pakistan' constitutes a sequence of programs which have infused a new life into a despondent nation. Zaid Hamid presents a unique, fresh and profound analysis of Iqbal's philosophical, psychological and spiritual dimensions, showcasing the pragmatism as well as the optimism embodied in his poetry. Zaid Hamid's simple yet meaningful interaction with the host, Ali Azmat, as well as with the audience, systematically unfolds the multifaceted personality of Allama Iqbal (R.A) for the very first time since the creation of Pakistan. Once again the poet, the philosopher and the seer becomes "the beating heart in the breast of the nation," inspiring and galvanizing the youth towards self improvement as well as reconstruction of a geographical entity into "Iqbal ka Pakistan."

BrassTacks - Khilafat-e-Rashida Series - (News One): July 22nd, 2009:

Brasstacks series on Khilafat-e-Rashida, Islamic political system and Ideology . Zaid Hamid compares it with different 'isms' of the modern world and shows how it's the best system not only for the Muslims but for the entire world as Social Justice is the basis for this system and it gives an economic system that doesn't have the ills of Capitalism or Socialism.

Qurun-e-Oola Series (News One): August 23rd, 2009 (7 episodes): BrassTacks new Ramazan series on the Golden age of Islam. The Golden Age was a period of unrivaled intellectual activity in all fields: science, technology, and (as a result of intensive study of the Islamic faith) literature - particularly biography, history and linguistics. During the Golden Age Muslim scholars also made important and original contributions to mathematics, astronomy, medicine and chemistry. Interesting facts about the Glorious Era of Muslim civilization brought to light by Zaid Hamid.

Zauq-e-Khudai - Pakistan Army - (News One): November 25th, 2009: A special program presented by Zaid Hamid for the TIGERS of Pakistan fighting on the borders and inside the borders against all the enemies of ALLAH, ISLAM, and PAKISTAN on all fronts. Zaid Hamid pays a befitting and overwhelming tribute to the sons of the soil.

BrassTacks Special - The Real Quaid-e-Azam (News One): December 25th, 2009:

In this special episode of Brasstacks, Zaid Hamid pays tribute to the father of the nation Quaid-e-Azam Mohammad Ali Jinnah (R.A) and puts an end to the baseless propaganda that Jinnah wanted a secular Pakistan.

Kashmir - Past, Present and Future – (AAJ TV): Feb 5th, 2010: Zaid Hamid tells a brief history of the Kashmir conflict between India and Pakistan and how it affected the relations between the two countries.

Halqa-e-Yaran Series (Royal Tv): August 21, 2010: (20 episodes): The romanticism started with the timeless Zavia series hosted by Baba Ashfaq Ahmed (R.A). The Spirit of Pakistan, the Ishq and Junoon for Deen-e-Haq and Pak Sarzameen, the mysteries and secrets that Allah has blessed this land with and the path towards the Truth. Those were the golden days when thousands and millions flocked to watch Baba Ashfaq Ahmed (R.A) on PTV with his beautiful analogies and explanations on the other dimension of Pakistan that few Men of Allah noticed.

In this age of worries, hopelessness and distress, the beauty and charm will be revived once again Insha'Allah. Zaid Hamid's new program Halqa-e-Yaran will take the present generation once again into the realms of unnoticed heritage, traditions and mysteries from the spiritual dimension of Pakistan and its special status in the Ummah. It is a journey not to be missed. Something to be watched and cherished by parents, children, teenagers and adults from all walks of life.

Shadows of Invasion – (Press TV): October 20th, 2010: Zaid Hamid tells about his past, present and future, and most significantly the Takmeel-e-Pakistan Movement.

This documentary reveals the disturbing links between the TTP and the US, probing into the facts about the TTP's creation and its manipulation by the US government.

Explaining a great deal, and indeed provides more evidence for the fact that the whole 9/11 event was manufactured, the threat of Osama Bin Laden and al-Qaeda (CIA Database) and Taliban. These are all assets owned by and controlled more or less by the US Intelligence Services. These Assets have a very minimal - if any - connection to Islam, and amongst the terrorists those arrested have been found to be uncircumcised (Muslims are required to be circumcised), they drink alcohol openly, for Muslims this is forbidden, they have been caught wearing women's clothing (i.e. the Burqa) - and fake beards and so on - all of this and much more are discussed and analyzed in this excellent documentary by Press TV. Broadcast between September 26 and October 2, 2010 in 7 episodes.

BrasTacks Monthly Security Review

1. Fourth Generation War against Pakistan, June, 2010: An incisive, detailed and exclusive analysis of and workable solutions for the most ferocious 4GW waged against Pakistan on multiple axes. The very first issue of BrasTacks Magazine made an intense impact on major policy makers and defense and strategic analysts, as they eagerly awaited the next edition for more eye opening expositions and almost prophetic yet realistically unfolding scenarios.

2. War over Water, July, 2010: Cover story presents a strategically substantial view on the plans, impact and consequences of Hydrological war of India against Pakistan. This issue also includes the benevolent ideology and mission strategy of the founder of BrasTacks Think Tank, Zaid Hamid

3. Fight for the Heart and Soul of Pakistan, August 2010: The issue highlights Pakistan's media policy and how it is being exploited by Western and Hindu agendas to dilute our Islamic identity, ideology as well as our national language. The paper also presents solutions and recommends goals of the media policy to counter the antagonistic attempts of the enemy to weaken the social, moral and religious fabric of our nation.

4. Fighting Insurgency: Religious and Secular Dynamics, September, 2010: A cutting edge analysis of the religious and secular dynamics of insurgencies fatally infesting Pakistan, tracing their genesis and roots outside and within Pakistan, and their expansion into the present times. Solutions are seen only in devising a homegrown, honourable, strategic security policy, vehemently calling for a decisive change.

5. India's Cold Start, October, 2010: A compelling, hair-raising scenario created in the future, painting a possible picture of a nuclear war between Pakistan and India involving all major civilizations, in the apocalyptically titled paper “ ARMAGEDDON 2014.”

6. American Wars: Conflict and Chaos in the Muslim Lands, November, 2010: From India- Israel military relations to propaganda and warfare in the cyber world and conflict and chaos created in the Muslim world by the American Wars, the issue graphically enumerates and analyzes all angles of these plagues and presents their solutions as well.

7. Indian Ocean: Battle for dominance, December, 2010: This issue of the Brasstacks Security Review takes on why Indian Ocean is the most critical region to be captured for global ascendancy; how global players are busy in repositioning of forces in the region; how Pakistan's maritime interests and naval defense is going to hurt in this contest and most importantly why Pakistan must have an impregnable naval defense. New security alliances are emerging at dawn of next decade offering new opportunities to Pakistan to choose new strategic partners for 21st century as 61 years old Pak-US “strategic partnership” has failed to ensure Pakistan's core strategic interests.

From Indus to Oxus: Experiences, Observations and Travels in the melting pot of history

Syed Zaid Zaman Hamid's personal experiences in the killing fields of Afghanistan as a Mujahid fighting the occupying Soviet forces as a youthful observer, participant and apprentice on a journey of emotional, physical and spiritual transformation, are included in a series of emotional, romantic and realistic memoirs in the monthly issues of BrassTacks Magazine. Syed Zaid Zaman Hamid plans to write a full book on this and a monthly chapter is added in every monthly review.

Audio, Video and Picture archive of Afghan Jihad in the 80's

BrassTacks maintains its own unique, rare and first hand archive of thousands of photographs, slides, hours of footage and audio tapes of Afghan resistance against the Soviets, making it the most reliable and genuine private archive of the war. The archive will be used to document the Afghan war and its lessons for future generations and are being used to write the memoirs of Syed Zaid Zaman Hamid in the book "From Indus to Oxus".

Legends of Afghan Jihad

December 27th 1979 is the day when Soviet Union invaded Afghanistan and then begins one of the most heroic resistances in Muslim history. 24 years ago, a young man from Karachi, decided to join the resistance and travelled in those romantic times when history was being written, destinies were being carved and an empire was being buried in the gorges of Afghanistan. For the first time, BrassTacks bring you the original footage from the Afghan Jihad and its relevance today as Afghans fight another war of resistance against western forces. These rare and historical archives have never been shown on mainstream media before and are exclusive BrassTacks's presentations. Come join us on a fascinating journey through history, which is nostalgic, earth shaking as well as surreal. These are the legends of the Afghan Jihad.

BrassTacks Weekly Security Situation Reports and Threat Analysis

Produced regularly, every week, for the last 11 years, these cutting edge reports are benchmark confidential documents to know the region and the threats with cutting edge and incisive knowledge about its culture, religion, history and the developing fault lines. This is where BrassTacks make its decisive impact. BrassTacks brings this report weekly, in order to interpret the latest developments in the region, and their possible repercussions on individual, corporate, national and regional security. The document also reports city-wise threat level metrics for all major cities in Pakistan, with advice on personal and travel safety.

23rd March 2010 – Takmeel-e-Pakistan

Based on Objectives Resolution, this sacred document was a ‘Tajdeed-e-Ehed’ a renewal of our promise, that we shall complete Pakistan by implementing the original resolutions and nation building guidelines of Quaid-e-Azam (R.A), Allama Iqbal (R.A) and other founding fathers, and revive the true spirit of Pakistan’s creation; to carry out its takmeel, or completion. On 23rd March 2010, exactly 70 years after Objectives Resolution was passed, the Takmeel-e-Pakistan resolution was presented and passed at Al-Hamra hall Lahore by Syed Zaid Zaman Hamid.

قراردادِ تکمیلِ پاکستان

- 1- تمام فرمانروائی کا مرکز اللہ تعالیٰ کی ذات ہے اور پاکستانی عوام کے ذریعے پاکستان کی ریاست کو دیئے گئے تمام اختیارات کو اللہ کی قائم کی گئی حدود میں رکھنا ایک عظیم امانت اور ذمہ داری ہے۔ اس کا مطلب ہے کہ پاکستان کو اب خلافتِ راشدہ کے مقدس طریق پر دوبارہ قائم کیا جائے اور ان اصولوں کے تحت اس کی سیاسی، اقتصادی، عدالتی، سماجی اور فوجی تشکیل کی جائے۔ پاکستان میں نہ مغربی جمہوریت ہوگی نہ آمریت، بلکہ زندگی کے ہر شعبے میں خلافتِ راشدہ کا طریقہ اپنایا جائے گا۔ اس سرزمین کے تمام ادارے، تمام اطوار صرف قرآن، سنت، اجماع اور قیاس کے مطابق ہونگے۔
- 2- پاکستان کی ریاست پاکستان کی عوام کے منتخب کیے گئے نمائندوں کے ذریعے اپنی طاقت کو استعمال کر سکتی ہے جو لوگ پاکستانی عوام کی نمائندگی کے اہل قرار دیئے جائیں ان کا کردار اور اخلاق قرآن اور سنت کے اعلیٰ ترین معیار پر پورا اترتا ہو۔ ان نمائندگان کا چناؤ سیاسی جماعتوں کے بجائے ان اصولوں اور طریقوں پر ہو جس کی مثال ہمیں خلافتِ راشدہ میں ملتی ہے۔
- 3- ایک ایسی ریاست جس میں اسلام کے دیئے گئے جمہوری اصول، آزادی، مساوات، باہمی محبت اور بھائی چارہ، برداشت اور تحمل اور سماجی انصاف کے اصولوں پر اسی طرح عمل ہو جیسا کہ خلافتِ راشدہ میں کیا گیا۔
- 4- ایک ایسی ریاست جس میں تمام مسلمان اپنی انفرادی اور اجتماعی زندگی میں قرآن اور سنت کے دیئے گئے اصولوں پر زندگی گزار سکیں۔ سود اور ربا کے کاغذی معاشی نظام کو ختم کر کے معیشت کی بنیاد سونے اور چاندی پر ڈالی جائے جیسا کہ قرآن و سنت میں بتایا گیا ہے اور جس کی مثال ہمیں خلافتِ راشدہ سے ملتی ہے۔
- 5- ایک ایسی ریاست جس میں مذہبی اقلیتیں اپنے تمام مذہبی امور، بخوبی انجام دے سکیں۔ خلافتِ راشدہ میں رائج کیے گئے قوانین کے مطابق ان کی جان و مال اور عزت کی حفاظت کی جائے۔
- 6- جو بھی علاقے پاکستان سے منسلک ہیں یا آئندہ مستقبل میں منسلک ہوں وہ ہل کر ایک مضبوط وفاق قائم کریں، ایک مضبوط ترین مسلمان ملک کی حیثیت سے پاکستان پر یہ ذمہ داری عائد ہوتی ہے کہ وہ دوسرے مسلمان ممالک کے ساتھ نظریاتی، اقتصادی، سیاسی اور فوجی بلاک کو نہ صرف تشکیل دے بلکہ اس کی قیادت بھی کرے۔
- 7- پاکستان کی قیادت میں ایک مشترکہ مسلم دفاعی بلاک اپنی حدود میں تمام اختیارات کا حامل ہوگا اور ان حدود کے اندر اپنی طاقت اور اختیارات کو استعمال کر سکے گا۔
- 8- ایک ایسی ریاست کا قیام جس میں انسان کو بنیادی حقوق حاصل ہوں مواقع کے لحاظ سے قانونی، معاشی اور سیاسی عدل کے لحاظ سے آزادی، افکار، اظہار، عبادت، وابستگی جو معاشرتی ادوار اور قانون کے مطابق ہوں۔ عدل و انصاف کی آسان اور مفت فراہمی بغیر کسی ڈر، خوف یا جانبداری کے ہو۔ انشاء اللہ پاکستان ایک اسلامی فلاحی ریاست ہوگا جیسا کہ خلافتِ راشدہ تھی۔
- 9- خلافتِ راشدہ کی طرز پر مذہبی اقلیتوں اور معاشرے کے پس ماندہ اور مظلوم طبقات کے جائز مفادات کو تحفظ فراہم کیا جائے گا۔
- 10- عدلیہ مکمل طور پر آزاد ہوگی اور نظام عدل کو خلافتِ راشدہ کی طرز پر تبدیل کیا جائے گا۔ مفت، غیر جانبدارانہ اور فوری انصاف فراہم کیا جائے گا۔
- 11- پاکستانیوں کو بین الاقوامی امن، ترقی اور بنی نوع انسان کی خوشحالی کی جدوجہد میں ایک بہت اہم کردار ادا کرنا ہوگا اور اپنے آپ کو ایک قابل عزت مقام پر لانا ہوگا تاکہ مسلم امت کی جو قیادت ہمارے مقدر میں لکھی گئی ہے اس کو استعمال میں لاتے ہوئے ہم تمام مسلم امت کو ایک نظر بناتی پرچم کے نیچے یکجا کر سکیں۔
- 12- پاکستان کی عزت اور آبرو اور اس کی جغرافیائی سرحدوں کی حفاظت ہر قیمت پر کی جائیگی۔ چاہے وہ زمین پر ہو، ہواؤں میں یا پانیوں میں۔ پاکستان کی خارجہ پالیسی، قومی دفاعی پالیسی اور فوجی حکمت عملی کا مقصد دنیا میں ایک غیر متندانہ اور پر امن طریقے پر پاکستان، مسلم امت اور دوست ممالک کی حفاظت کرنا ہوگا۔
